The sermon and chargs to the candidate will be delivered by the Rev. F. G. Rott, D. D., will present the candidate for orders. Both are instructors at the Bishop Payne Divinity School.

Three Hund'ed Days in Jail.

Benjamin Spence, a negro from Newberg, S. C., committed three larcenies yesterday afternoon and resisted and fought the police when they attempted to divige his name or say anything about himself. He entered three stores—those of the Southern Loan Company, Samuel Goldstein and L. Rosenbaum—grabbing clothes in each, and leaving unceremonious. He was found last night trying to sell the stolen articles for a small sum. Officer Williams attempted to arrest him, but was violently resisted, Officer Hubbard came to his assistance and was assaulted, and both were cursed. The negro, however, was overpowered and locked up. This morning he was sentenced to 300 days' imprisonment in jail—sixty days on each of the three charges of larcency, sixty days for resisting arrest and sixty diys for assaulting an office.

A Long Chase.

Tom Morgan and Joe Ellis, two "bad" negroes, who were charged with assaulting and beating up a woman, gave the police a long and exciting chase last night before they were caught. The chase led over a distance of two or three miles, and a bicycle and an automobile were used in the pursuit. In the Police Court this morning they were heavily fined.

Pied in Ronnoke.

A telegram received to-day announces the death at his home in Roanoke of Augustus King, a former well known citizen and tallor of this city. He is survived by two daughters—Mrs. C. L. Marks, of Roanoke, and Mrs. D. J. Ligon, of Lynchburg—and a son—Charles E. King, of this city.

Mad Dog Excitement.

A dog showing symptoms of rabies caused considerable excitement on South Sycamore Street this afternoon. It attacked and bit several dogs, but seemed to take no notice of people or horses. The animal was pursued and shot several times, and was finally killed on Harrison Street by Bicycle Policeman Goodwyn.

Personal and Otherwise.

President H. B. Walker, of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, passed through the city from Richmond to Norfolk this morning.

Delicate Operation.

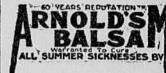

Experts on the negro problem.

The group study of the race problem at the University of Virginia grew out of a suggestion made by Dr. Bruce R. Payne in his series of lectures in the series of the court, at the beginning of the courtent session the work was divided into six groups, or classes—the econof the subject assigned to particular individuals. Each student enrolled in the course prepared reports embodying the results of his own personal in-vestigation. At a meeting of the sev-eral groups these separate reports were discussed and incorporated in the larger group report. The six gen-
